Opera and Music Theatre Forum Insurance Scheme

Performing Arts Portfolio

Specialist Insurance for performing arts organisations

Through the Opera and Music Theatre Forum (OMTF) Insurance Scheme you could benefit from preferential rates, and the savings you make could cover the costs of your membership. Our Performing Arts Portfolio has been specifically designed for opera, theatre and dance companies.

OMTF has teamed up with specialist insurance broker La Playa to help protect performing arts organisations from spiralling insurance premiums, inadequate cover and expensive duplications from maintaining multiple non-specialist insurance policies. Performing Arts Portfolio is exclusively available through La Playa and is underwritten by arts-friendly insurers.

Simply put, Performing Arts Portfolio is a well-designed, comprehensive contract that uniquely fulfils all the insurance requirements of a 21st century arts organisation. It offers exceptionally comprehensive protection, with all covers under one policy. La Playa is one of the few independent insurance brokers specialising in the performing arts, and our client list includes many of the UK's leading opera, theatre and dance companies.

Performing Arts Portfolio

Specialist Insurance for performing arts organisations

Performing Arts Portfolio covers include:

- * Property: office contents, computers, musical instruments, hired in equipment, scenery, lighting, audio visual equipment, props, wardrobe, merchandise stock, CDs, brochures, programmes
- * Business Interruption: protects income streams during physical and technological disruptions (fire, flood, power & telecommunications failure, prevention of access to venues)
- * Employers', Public and Product Liabilities: employees, freelancers, volunteers and audience
- * Money: box office receipts, fees, subsistence expenses, programme/merchandise sales
- * Cyberliability: infringement of copyright, virus transmission, malicious damage to website
- * Trustee Liability: protecting your Board against allegations of mismanagement or breach of duty
- * Commercial Legal Protection: legal advice, defence costs and compensation on issues such as health & safety, employment disputes, tax

The performing arts, by nature, can often cause complications for insurance - particularly whilst on tour, and many non-specialist insurers have fixed (and inaccurate) ideas about the industry - charging high premiums to protect themselves against perceived "high-risk" activities. As a performing arts company, you can get business insurance from a general insurer, but there are good reasons for working with a specialist broker who understands how the performing arts operate.

With Performing Arts Portfolio you'll benefit from:

- * Superb levels of cover under a single bespoke policy
- * Preferential rates
- * Expert advice: access to a single, named point of contact who really understands the performing arts
- * Peace of mind: the assurance of being able to get cover, in the safe hands of a highly experienced broker
- * First class claims handling – fast and efficient
