

La Playa Science & Technology

a critical support service for UK science parks

Information Technology • Communications Technology • Electronics Life Sciences • Nanotechnology • Cleantech • Mediatech • Alternative Energy

Do you offer support to start-up, early stage and SME science & technology businesses? Perhaps you're responsible for commercialising university R&D or managing knowledge transfer partnerships and spin-out activity?

Then here's something you need to know...

La Playa Science & Technology works with a broad range of people and organisations involved in new technology start-ups and development, including spin-out managers and technology transfer professionals, complementing their business support programmes with insurance and risk-management modules tailored to need. We offer:

- Free onsite tutorials, seminars and 'lunch & learn' style lectures on insurance and risk management issues faced by early stage, disruptive tech firms
- Free & confidential one-to-one advisory clinics for tenant businesses & entrepreneurs
- Enterprise risk reports – we'll examine the business plan and provide a tailored insurance report – free of charge

An award-winning independent broker, La Playa is one of the few specialists working in insurance and risk management for science and technology. We speak your language – and our combination of specialist policies, expert advice and first class service is a great antidote to vast corporations and call centre mentality of much of the insurance industry today.

Why not partner with us to provide a branded insurance scheme for your tenants:

- Free, independent advice
- Specialist, tailored risk solutions from our panel of top flight insurers
- Expert, jargon-free support
- Innovative events
- No outlay required by you

We'll guide your tenants through:

- Property & R&D activity
- Business Interruption
- Intellectual Property
- Public & Product Liability
- Employers' Liability
- Professional Indemnity / Technology Errors & Omissions
- Directors & Officers Liability
- Environmental Liability
- Crisis Management Programme
